Notes about Warners

1765 William Warner marries Hannah Wilbor, 31 Oct 1763/5 (town record 1765) in Westmoreland, Cheshire, NH. William is of 'New Hamsted', which is likely New Flamsted (name changed to Chester, VT. in 1770.) Daniel Warner (original grantee in New Flamsted 1754 from Worcester, Mass.), and likely his son Joshua Warner had a house there after 1761 which he sells in 1775 to move to Westmoreland, NH. Children of William Warner and Hannah Wilbor are born 1768-1884, 9 in number. Family remained in Westmoreland to 1794.

1780 Anna Warner birth in New Hampshire-1850 and 1860 census.

1790 Census in Westmoreland NH shows William Warner and wife and dependents. 2 2 5 The missing children must be 2 boys who have died, probably Lee (1772) and Joshua (1782).

1790 Nov 14 Westmoreland Marriage of Diana (Diadama) Warner and Barnet S. Waite, they move to Londonderry, VT. in 1791 where they remained, have 13 children, 2 who die young. Old family homestead is in North village, Albert B. Waite (grandson) lived there to 1930. Londonderry history names children.

1794 William Warner and wife Hannah move to Andover, VT. They buy John Simons Jr.'s (from Enfield CT.) farm. William Warner votes in Andover meetings 1794 - 1799). It is likely that daughter Susan marries Mr. Simmons in Andover-Weston area, because there are many Simmons living there, but marriage records are skimpy for this time, as are death records. and Hannah Warner probably died before 1800 while living at Andover, VT.

19 Dec 1799 Joseph Warner marries Anna Bullard in New York. She has likely moved there with her parents, Jonathan and Abigail Bullard from Stockbridge, Windham co. VT. (1790 census Stockbridge, 6 children) Source - ?

1800- Onondaga Co. N.Y. Joseph Warner (Anna's brother) in Onondaga town census, 1800. Caleb seems to be in Herkimer co. census of 1800 as a young single man. Joseph and Caleb Warner and Jonathan Bullard buy land in 1800 in Onondaga town together. A Joseph Homer (possibly a cousin of Benjamin) head of household also lived in Onondaga town, 1800 Census. There is a Joseph Simonds also present in the 1800 Onondaga Co. census. with 1 male child, and a wife who may be Anna's older sister Susan Warner. (Female children are unreadable in this census entry.)

1801.1802, and 1805 land purchases by Joseph Simonds, Onondaga Co. NY. in Pompey and Fabius towns. He sets up two taverns in and by Fabius before 1810 (county and town history). In his land purchases he is associated with a Jacob Simmons, Jr. This man dies in 1810 at age 63, and may be his father. (Onondaga Register) There is a son Jacob Simmons who remains

Where did the idea that Joseph Simonds was Susan's husband come from

- in Onondaga co. to his death in 1859 at age 70. (most likely a younger brother of Joseph Simmons?, he is 11 in 1800.) There is a Juditha Simmons baptized 8/23/1806 in Fabius Baptist Church who may be related to Joseph Simmons also (only one Simmons family in town at this time).
- 1802-Caleb Warner (Anna's brother) goes to Weston, Vermont, selling his portion of land in Onondaga to his brother Joseph and Jonathan Bullard.
- 1805- In Londonderry, VT. there is a William Warner who marries Mary Bigalow 20 Dec 1804 and has town entries from 1807-1816.
- 1805-Caleb returns to Onondaga, purchasing another property with Jonathan Bullard (likely father-in-law of Caleb or Joseph Warner) in Camillus. From later census data it can be shown that he married at this time. It is likely that Anna was brought to Onondaga, N.Y in 1804-5 by Caleb Warner, her brother and his bride.
- 1805-Benjamin Cobb Homer (visiting his relative in Onondaga town Joseph Homer, marries Anna Warner (visiting her brothers Joseph and Caleb or sister Susan in Onondaga town and nearby) and moves a short distance away to Tully (1806), which later becomes Spafford, Onondaga. NY. County histories source.
- 1806- land purchase by Benjamin C. Homer. Onondaga Co.
- 1806- Land purchase by a William Warner and wife Betsy in Onondaga co., Manillus. They appear in the 1810 census as both under 26 years. They sell their property in 1816.
- 1810- Benjamin Homer is in census of Onondaga. with wife and 2 children. Joseph Simonds, Joseph and Caleb Warner and Jonathan Bullard (though there is an Abigail Bullard widow in Onondaga town in 1810 and 1820 censuses with older children) are no longer in Onondaga censuses.
- 1810- Joseph Simons, Joseph and Caleb Warner are in Oneida county for the 1810 census. All are parents. Joseph has 4, Caleb has 2, and Simonds has 7.
- 1820- Benjamin Homer is in Onondaga county, Spafford census. He has participated in land sales in 1811, 1816, 1822, and 1826 in Onondaga co.
- 1825-Benjamin Homer family states last child is born in Ridgeway, Orleans Co. N.Y. There is in Ridgeway town records another William Warner 1820-1835 buying land and voting. William Warner, Ridgeway, 1820 census, Genesee co. 1830, Castile, Genesee co.
- 1820- Joseph Warner in Genesee, Orangeville, Joseph Simonds, in

Leicester, Genesee Co. NY. censuses. Leicester town history states he owned 'Pine tavern' in the woods. Parents are both 45 & older, 5 children at home. Asher Simmons next door. Likely Caleb is in Jefferson Co. NY. Brownville (his family matches with earlier censuses.)

1823-a William Warner age 83 of Chester, VT and Westmoreland NH, and Londonderry VT. (as stated in Londonderry town history) dies.

1825-Benjamin Cobb Homer's family tradition states that they lived in Ridgeway Orleans co. NY and that the youngest child was born there in 1825.

1830-Joseph Simonds is still in Leicester, now Livingston Co. NY. Caleb Warner is still in Jefferson Co. census, Waterton. Joseph Warner is in Elba, Genesee co. NY.

1833- Benjamin Homer family moves to Conneautville, Crawford Co. PA stating they are 'of Orleans Co. NY' Crawford Co. History. Their children marry- Amos Rice md Elizabeth Homer and William Warner Homer md Anne Thomas in Orleans. (Thomas and Rice families are present. Marriage time is appropriate.)

1837-Joseph Warner moves to Rawsonville, MI from Genesee Co. NY.

1839- Benjamin Homer daughter Delcina marries 1 Jan 1839 Holbert Landon in Crawford PA.

1840-Caleb Warner is in Irondequoit, Monroe Co. NY. census. age 60-70, wife age 50-60.

1841-Joseph Warner dies in Rawsonville, MI.

1840-Benjamin Homer is in Crawford PA census, a Ruth Allen is in Conneaut, Erie Co. PA census close by.

1850 Benjamin Homer family living with Holbert family in census.

1852 Benjamin Homer dies.

1860 Anna Homer 79 in census with Crockett family.

Of secondary interest-

I have in my notes that a Thomas Homer, Jr. b. 1770 (uncle of Benjamin Cobb Homer) and wife Lydia Glazier move to Cortland Co. NY. early. There are two men in the 1830 census living next door in Virgil, Cortland co. Edmund and Benjamin Homer (young men and an older female 50-60.

The William Warner who marries Lucy Adams in Londonderry VT in 3/13/1823 is a son of Joshua Warner and Rhoda of Weston, vt, born 11 Jul 1800. He is in the census of 1840 as age 40-50 with his family near other Adams' families. He is most likely the William Warner who died in Chester 4/19/1841.

Patton

Elisha Warner and Keziah Gibson both of Grafton, VT. (daughter of Abraham and Esther Gibson, of Grafton VT) marry 2 Dec 1813. They are in the 1820 census of Grafton, Windham co. vt. and the 1830 census of Grafton (1 boy 3 girls) and 1840 census Grafton (4 children and one male 80-90). They took a trip to Onondaga county 1817-1818 where they bought land Oct 1817 and sold it Jan 1818 in Manlius.

Augustus Warner and Abigail Bennett marry prior to birth of child Ranson Augustus Warner born 20 April 1810, Londonderry, VT. Augustus after 1811 or so moves to Sandy Creek, Oswego co. NY. where he is in the 1820 census, Richland, Sandy Creek, Oswego Co. and the 1830 census. He dies 19 Aug 1837 at Sandy Creek. His wife died Orangeville, Mich. (1863) There are several children shown in the census entries.

Could the William Warner who marries Mary Bigalow in Londonderry VT in 1804 be the parent of Anna? The entry does not say Jr. He is present there and likely single since the likely 1800 census entry showed no wife and the will of Joseph Wilbor in 1809 says she has died. There are no children named for this couple, though a William Warner remains active in community functions until 1816. The William Warner family is not in the 1810 or 1820 census and this might be explained if they were an old couple living with relatives. Perhaps the grave of William Warner could be visited for clues.

If it is important to locate a brother, William Warner, Jr. it seems that the most likely one is the William Warner of Orleans Co. NY. This may be the same one who was in Onondaga Co. in 1806, 1810, and 1816.

!History of Londonderry, Vermont, Page 192

Marriage data for Diadama Warner, states: Her father William Warner was among the first settlers of Chester, Vermont and had settled on the main street of the village then moved to Westmoreland where Diana wed B. Wait.

Marriage date-31 oct 1765 is from Westmoreland record which has been difficult to locate but has been cited several times. Wife is Hannah Wilbor. The entry states he was of New Hampstead= New Flamstead= Chester, Vermont.

Chester (theory- because Daniel Warner (proprietor, 1754), and Joshua selectman and assessor, 1764, and William (March, 1765 town meeting). (See Chester history) are part of Chester's (New Flamstead) early history. Joshua Warner, father of William, sold his land there in 1775 while living in Westmoreland. Also Londonderry history records that Diana Warner Wait 's father was of Chester.

Family evidences- In 1776 William Warner of Westmoreland for military purposes is listed as over 21. In 1777, in Westmoreland he registers a mark.

He is listed in 1785 as finding a stray horse. He is listed as a family with his children in the 1790 census [2 males over 16 yrs, 2 males under 16 yrs. and 5 females.] In 1850 census Anna states she was born in NH.

He (and his wife Hannah) buy property in 1792 in Andover, Vt and sell in 1794 property in Westmoreland, NH. moving there before 1794.

In his father-in-law's will (Joseph Wilbur) of 1809 of Cheshire co. NH. his wife is named as Hannah Warner, deceased.

Death date- Several sources state he died in Londonderry, Vt. 16 Aug 1823. at the age of 84. There had been a William Warner living there since 18.

There is also a Wm Warner, marrying a Mary Bigalow in Londonderry, 1805. Either one may be the correct Wm Warner. #1320632. Wrong lead-There is also a Wm son of Joshua b. 1800 who weds Lucy Adams and is in both Londonderry 1820's having children and 1840 in Andover census, he is most likely the Wm Warner who dies in Chester Vt. in 1841.

CHILD 5 - Joseph P. WARNER-3690

Family data is from Homer tradition (early Temple book lists children's names) and from Family History Capers, a Wayne co. newsletter Querie entry submitted by Jean A. Booth of Athens Ga, Fall, 1986.

Census data has Joseph Warner p. 397 Elbe Township Genesee co. NY in 1830. Land: They bought land there in 1827 and sold it in 1837. Joseph and his wife Anna are named in the deeds.

CHILD 6 - Caleb WARNER-3691

Census- as a single person. Herkimer co. NY. 1800.

Deed- Onon., NY. 17 Sept 1800, Joseph Warner and Anna, Jonathan Bullard and Caleb Warner purchased a lot and mortgage in Onondaga town. Same persons are involved in a deed of 19 Oct 1801.

Return- In 1805, Caleb Warner and Jonathan Bullard bought a lot in the town of Camillus.

Census- 1810 Onieda co. NY. both Caleb and Joseph Warner families live side by side. No persons have their first names named. (C. Warner and J. Warner) C. Warner has 2 daughters under 10.

Census- 1820 and 1830 there is a Caleb Warner family living in Jefferson co. Ny. in Brownville and then Waterton. Each entry has a predominance of daughters. This person is gone in 1840.

1840 Census- In Irondequoit, Monroe Co. there is a Caleb Warner, age 60-70, wife aged 50-60 with 7 dependents at home probably the children of the 30-40 aged woman in their home. In each census case the wife has been younger by this amount.

CHILD 7 - Ann Anna WARNER-171

The submitter of the family group sheet with Ann Warner as the mother was Mrs. Eliza Homer Longhurst, RFD #1 Shelley Idaho, 83274. She stated as her sources family records of Russel King Homer, and research, and Archives data from the Genealogical Library.

!The Homer Family History, 929.273 H752c, shows this person as follows:

Anna Warner 23 July/Nov 1780 Westmoreland, Ches., New Hampshire.
New York Census records show Anna as: 1790, among the group of children of William Warner living in Westmoreland N.H. 1800, living as a single girl age 16-26 with her father in Andover, Vt. In 1810 she is living with her husband, Benjamin Cobb Homer in Spafford, Onondaga, N.Y. (Town histories have mentioned they moved into Spafford in 1806. Onondaga's Centennial and Collins' History of Spafford Books.) In 1820 they were also in Spafford, Onondaga, N.Y. 1822-25 they moved to Ridgway Orleans Co. then they were back in Virgil, Cortland Co. for the 1830 census and in Crawford Co. PA. for the 1840, 50, and 1860 censuses living with and near their married children.

There has been a family tradition that Anna was married in Erie, N.Y. This has not been proved to be true as all Erie's and Springfield's have been searched.

CHILD 8 - Joshua WARNER-3694

The assumption is made that Joshua died as a child because the 1790 census lists 4 males 2 over 16 and 2 under 16, and Caleb and Joseph are both under 16 and live to adulthood.

CHILD 9 - Azeneth WARNER-935
