

3. This started the whole thing

The factor that brought Richard Terry and Bob Roylance together was their independent discover of Zarahemla. In their minds, there was so many similarities between Ceibal and Zarahemla that it had to be real.

This was the start of something special for the Pasion River Model research team.

Book of Mormon Timeline at Ceibal – Zarahemla

25 Scriptural Requirements for Zarahemla

Physical Characteristics:

West of river
River running north
Moderate river
Center of Land
Many churches
Fortifications
Defensive topography

Harvard's TimeLine:

Jaredite arrival 800 BC
Mulekites arrival 600 BC
Mosiah's' Arrival 200 BC
Societal Change 0 AD
Abandoned 224 AD

Correlations:

West of Antionum
East of Melek
North of Manti
West of Jershon
West of hill Amnihu
North of the NSW
South of the NNL
Hill Manti near
South of the West Sea
River must turn west
West of Gideon
West of coastal cities
North of Nephi

Sacred Sectors

The black entities on the map to the right have designated as E Groups and are also considered to have neighborhood functions that are of a spiritual nature. Some researchers have actually described them as wards.

